Description: Give me your tired, your poorYour huddled masses yearning to breathe free

Review: I love this book. We checked it out at the library and I knew it must be a permanent addition to our home library. It's about Emma Lazarus' poem that made the Statue of Liberty the symbol of what it is today. My most favorite part of the book was that it painted a realistic picture of what it was like for immigrants then, and how Emma cared for their...
